	The ESL teacher (I) can	1	2	3	4
Instruction	Model skills and strategies for teaching academic language (reading, writing, listening, speaking) to ELs Provide supports at the word, sentence, and discourse level of the academic language demands of texts and tasks Integrate language with grade level appropriate content in lessons Build background and cultural knowledge necessary to comprehend texts and perform tasks
	Get to know students and design instruction for ELs with different proficiency levels, cultural backgrounds, and educational experiences
	Create an inclusive classroom environment Incorporate native language supports and allow for appropriate native language use
	Provide appropriate literacy instruction for ELs including supports for essential elements of reading (phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, comprehension)
	Analyze and select appropriate instructional materials
Standards	Understand and implement English Language Development Standards
	Analyze language demands of grade level content standards Support general education teachers and other specialists with implementation of grade level content standards for ELs Assessment	Formatively assess academic language skills in all four domains (listening, speaking, reading, writing) in the classroom setting Analyze and interpret formative and standardized data about language acquisition and content concept development
	Use formative assessment data to make decisions about next steps in instruction
	Use multiple data sources to make school-wide recommendations for program development and professional development
	Work with special needs educators to interpret language assessments and other data for ELs with special learning needs
Collaboration	Create accommodations for classroom assignments and assessments for students at different language acquisition levels
	Collaborate with colleagues to co-plan differentiated instruction
	Develop instructional supports to help ELs meet the academic language demands involved in grade-level content Gather and share information about ELs with staff Collaborate with special needs educators to provide specialized language and learning support
Parents and	Communicate effectively with parents/guardians/family members
Community	Create an inclusive school community and welcoming school environment
	Build family and community connections through programming and outreach Connect EL families with community resources Professional Development	Provide school based professional development on strategies for working with culturally and linguistically diverse students Share a depth of knowledge of second language acquisition	                                     		-
Advocacy	Advocate for culturally and linguistically diverse students regarding school policies, programs, schedules
	Develop and evaluate the school wide ESL program	L			